

Blowing In the Wind – Bob Dylan, key of D

D            G            D
How many roads must a man walk down
D            G            A
Before you call him a man?
D            G            D            Bm
How many seas must a (the) white dove sail
D            G            A
Before she sleeps in the sand?
D            G            D
How many times must the cannonballs fly
D            G            A
Before they're forever banned?

G            A            D            Bm
The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
G            A            D
The answer is blowing in the wind

D            G            D
How many years can a mountain exist
D            G            A
Before it's washed to the sea?
D            G            D            Bm
How many years must some people exist
D            G            A
Before they're allowed to be free?
D            G            D
And how many times can a man turn his head
D            G            A
And pretend that he just doesn't see?

G            A            D            Bm
The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
G            A            D
The answer is blowing in the wind

D            G            D
How many times can a man look up
D            G            A
Before he sees the sky?
D            G            D                    Bm
How many ears must one man (person) have
D            G            A
Before he can hear people cry?
D            G            D
And how many deaths will it take 'til he knows
D            G            A
That too many people have died?

G            A            D                    Bm
The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
G            A                    D
The answer is blowing in the wind

G            A            D                    Bm
The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
G            A                    D
The answer is blowing in the wind

(Chords from a Peter, Paul, and Mary recording.)